ON BEHALF OF ALL EXECUTIVE AND MEMBERS

JOIN US AND HAVE A-----

* HAPPY NEW YEAR *

REMEMBER?

'T WAS THE NIGHT BEFORE ?

 'Twas the month before elections,
 And as each member fears,
 The dearth of directors
 Was as in other years.

For months we'd been asking
 For new volunteers;
 We'd resorted to coercion,
 Tantrums, and tears.

We formed a committee
 Each member to call,
 And arrived at December
 With no names at all.

Some were too busy
 From spring until fall;
 Too busy to organize
 Or carry the ball.

Some were unworthy,
 At least, that's what they said;
 And a few just went
 And climbed under the bed.

On December the ninth
 (We all had a sched.)
 We met in the green room.
 (For wine and cheese--Ed.)

We reported our findings,
 The Prez. made a plea;
 We all sat in silence.
 (I admit --even me!)

Then two of our members
 Stood up and said yes!
 Tom (FMI) and
 Greg (GJS).

Now, the rest of the members
 Can be of good cheer;
 Christmas came early;
 And we'll have a new year!

Even if I be hanged for it, I must admit to being the author(?) of the above verse (or voice--as they say in Brooklin). I do not want to preach (or seem to be preaching) because, as I mentioned above, I was one of the silent keys when the call went out for volunteers for directors. I am one of those who deem themselves 'unworthy' and this feeling stems from the fact that I am not an active 'ham' and, therefore, do not know what is of interest to those who are. I have, however, volunteered to be registrar and have accepted the responsibility of providing refreshments and of publishing the monthly bulletin in lieu of providing leadership. There are many other ways in which the executive may be assisted in the discharge of their duties--even without attending meetings. Get involved!!!.

A LETTER TO THE EDITOR -(FROM DOUG JOHNS (VE3APW))

DEAR KEITH.

The enclosed material will be self-explanatory. I'm one of those silent amateurs who do little more than pay their dues, attend no meetings (having spent 40 years attending them I have cultivated an extreme dislike of them!), and contribute very little to the club. Recognizing all of the above, I do read the bulletins word by word and (particularly at this time of the year) wonder how many people like me have ever expressed appreciation to you and all the members of the executive for the excellent work you do in the interests of the club and its membership.

In case my assumption is accurate, I would like to express my sincere thanks to all of you. I find the bulletins interesting and informative, and, when I occasionally use the repeater, I am grateful for the interest and expertise of those who maintain it in good condition.

Thanks to you and all the good people involved and, together with my thanks, I should like to use this opportunity to convey my warmest wishes that you will, individually, enjoy a most merry Christmas and a bright, prosperous and happy New Year.

73,

sincerely

Doug Johns (VE3APW)

DEAR DOUG:-

As editor of the bulletin I thank you for your kind words and, by writing the above letter, your contribution to the partial alleviation of my monthly dilemma (that of trying to fill these pages). I do not make that remark facetiously, but with sincerity, because you are one of the very few unseen members who have written in to thank the executive (of whom I am not one) for the work they do on your behalf.

Despite the fact that you do not attend meetings (or wish to) it is still possible for you to contribute a great deal to the enjoyment others find in hamming. If you read magazines, I'm sure you must come across articles which would be of interest to other members; if so, you would do us all a great service if you would take the time to synopsis, remark upon and/or refute, the article's points of contention as well as refer us to the publication in which you found it.

I hope you will not take this as a suggestion that you should be doing more for the club (your financial contribution was generous) but as a way for you to be closer to us without having to attend meetings.

I look forward to hearing more from you and hope that this letter will provoke more correspondence from others who, like you, do not like to attend meetings. 73.

Sincerely,

Keith Wyard-Scott (VE3GDF).

DEAR MEMBERS:-

During the festive season, I am sure that you, like myself, have found a million things to do and no time in which to do them. I hope you will bear with me and understand why this issue of the bulletin is slightly smaller than usual (I have not even had time to pick pieces from other bulletins to fill the extra pages). I would like to urge you to be present at our January 9 meeting to support those members who have agreed to stand for election and to help get our 1989 year off to a good start.
